From the segregated American South to the fashion capitals around the world, operatic fashion editor André Leon Talley's life is on display in THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ANDRÉ. The enigmatic personality takes us through his life; from the struggles of his youth through to his move to New York to fulfil his dream of working in the fashion industry and later, to his iconic, barrier-breaking work at publications like Women's Wear Daily, W and Vogue.

Weaving together archival footage from the most glamorous moments in fashion history with André's poignant reflections on his life and career, the seminal film is a cinematic monument to one of the most unique figures of the 20th century fashion industry.

Directed by Kate Novack (Page One: Inside the New York Times), the film features commentary from fashion luminaries including Anna Wintour, Tom Ford and Marc Jacobs and draws fascinating and unexplored connections between his early life in the South and later work in the fashion world.
